

FALL AND WINTER NWAAS PROGRAMS

September 19th: Walker Room, Fayetteville Public Library, 10a.m. to noon: Leesia C. Marshall will present: “The Life and Times of the Louisiana Waterthrush on Watershed Streams of the Upper Buffalo National River: These are the Days of Their Lives”

October 10th: Shiloh Museum, Springdale, 1-4pm: NWAAS Photo Contest Results. This will include a question and answer session about birds by the Bird Guys and a program by Lynn Sciumbato, Director of the Morning Star Wildlife Rehabilitation Center, plus an exhibit of photo contest winners.

December 5th, Walker Room, Fayetteville Public Library, 10am-noon. Pam and Jack Stewart will present: “From the Devil’s Throat to the Heart of Fire: A Birdwatching Journey in Argentina”. This will also be the annual meeting for the election of officers.

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

B52
7XCH

Mail to: Bill Beall, Treasurer, 2204 Hendricks Blvd. Fort Smith, AR 72903-3422

Name: _____

Street: _____

City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

Email address _____

PLEASE SELECT:

_____ $20 Introductory Membership to the National Audubon Society which is for 1 year and includes subscriptions to both the Audubon Magazine and the NWAAS newsletter, and membership in both the National and Northwest Arkansas Audubon Societies. Please make check payable to the National Audubon Society. (Note that after the first year, annual membership is $40.00 per year.)

_____ $15.00 Local Chapter Membership –which includes 1 year’s membership in the Northwest Arkansas Audubon Society only. You will receive the NWAAS Newsletter. 100% of your membership fee is used for NWAAS activities in Northwest Arkansas. Please make check payable to the Northwest Arkansas Audubon Society